

This year we celebrate the 30th anniversary of Black History Month in the UK.

New campaign for Black History Month 2021 invites Black Asian and Minority Ethnic (BAME) people around the UK to share what they are Proud To Be – for a festival of celebration in October.

Liverpool will showcase the talent and vibrancy of the city's black communities, and welcome national and international artists, activists, historians and commentators.

A brand new programme celebrating and exploring Black music on Merseyside launches this weekend (Sunday 24 October 2021).

Running from Sunday 24 October 2021 to Sunday 7 November 2021, live music performances, documentaries, walking tours, workshops, debates and podcasts will make up the thought-provoking programme.

Join the team at National Museums Liverpool for a number of not-to-be-missed events taking place across its museums and galleries to mark Black History Month.
